(a) The inspection is solely visual and non-mechanical in nature. BPC Auto Inspect cannot be held accountable for latent defects not visibly apparent during the inspection. The assessment covers the vehicle's exterior, interior, engine compartment, tires and wheels, brakes, underbody, and, where feasible, a road test. It explicitly excludes the following elements. The inspection does not involve component removal. Please note that while BPC Auto Inspect employs accepted fault-detection methods, not all vehicle faults may be identified. When reviewing the report, consider the vehicle's age and condition at the time of inspection. Road tests are conducted only at the local speed limit.
